Mrs. John T. Anderson, who spent the summer months in Europe, has recently opened her town house, 105 West Franklin Street, for the winter. Mrs. Anderson has been at "Tivoli," her country estate in Orange County, all fall and only returned to Richmond last week.

James Allison is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Anderson, for the Thanksgiving holidays. Mr. Allison will resume his studies at Columbia University, New York, some time shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Palmer, Christian, who have been in New York City for the past week, sailed on Saturday for that place on board the steamship Caribbea, for the Bermuda Islands. Mr. and Mrs. J. Pope Nash, of Westhampton, were also among the Richmond people sailing for Bermuda on board the Caribbea.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Beckes, of the Rev. R. F. Redinger, father of the groom, officiating. Miss Louise Howard, of Lynchburg, sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love," accompanied on the organ by Miss Alice Faulkner, immediately before the ceremony. The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, was crowned in white satin with a tulle veil, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Reekes, maid of honor, who wore white silk crepe veiled in Nile green tulle, and carried a basket of Killarney roses, and by Mrs. E. W. Overy, of Norfolk, and R. H. Moore, also of Norfolk.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. W. E. Moore and Mrs. J. M. Venable, of Falls Church; Mrs. V. E. Howard and Miss Louise Howard, of Lynchburg; Miss Carrie M. Swetham, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. A. Snellings, of Lawrenceville; and T. N. Williams, of Clarksville. Mr. and Mrs. Redinger left immediately after the ceremony for New York and other Eastern points. The bride is a graduate of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, and Mr. Redinger is a graduate of the same institution and law partner of the bride's father, Mr. and Mrs. Redinger will reside in Boynton.

At Hot Springs. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hall are spending this week at the Virginia Hot Springs. Mr. and Mrs. Hall will later go to Lexington, where they will be the guests of Colonel and Mrs. Jennings Wise at the Virginia Military Institute for several days before returning to Richmond.

After a Northern wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Disse will make their home in Washington.

Miss Meredith's Card Party. Miss Alice Meredith was given a delightful card party at her home on Monroe Avenue on Wednesday evening from 5 to 11 o'clock. Those present were Misses Catherine Sullivan, Alice Meredith, Bessie Venderlehr, Catherine Boelling, Alice Venderlehr, Louise Stuch, Catherine Holleran, Messrs. Charles McGeorge, Lawrence Ross, Jerome Fischer, Aubrey Loth, made to her by her indignant relatives being utterly inadequate for her needs. The funds were mostly in the nature of purchasing things on credit, cash, villas, hotels, yachts, art treasures, jewelry, etc., and then either pledging them or else selling them for a low price, or else by persuading people to loan her large sums, owing to monetary embarrassment, on the alleged possession of the large fortunes that she had already dissipated, also by promises of the use of her influence in promoting the social aspirations of her dupes.

Among the castles which figured in transactions of this character, was that famous one of Schoenau, on the Rhine, so widely known in connection with Scheffel's popular story of "The Princess of Sackkingen." I have not before me an advertisement, contained in the Bodensee Zeitung, a Swiss paper, which runs as follows: "I hereby announce the fact that I have bought and taken over all the buildings of the Hotel du Lac, at Rapperswil, as well as the baths, the sanatorium and the dependencies of it." She bought this hotel on
